CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DEALING WITH CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE

Warrandyte Calisthenics College wants Children and Young People (CYP) in Calisthenics to feel safe, included, encouraged and supported – essentially, to enjoy themselves so that they keep participating. To make sure that we create this environment, Warrandyte’s Code of Conduct for Dealing with Children & Young People (Code of Conduct CYP) requires everyone involved in Calisthenics to abide by certain behavioural standards when it comes to dealing with Children & Young People (CYP). This table summarises those requirements. All behaviour towards CYP should consider the needs and safety of:

- indigenous CYP;
- CYP from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds; and
- CYP with a disability.

Code of Behaviour Requirement for dealing with Children & Young People
1	Language and Tone of Voice: a) Should provide clear direction, encourage and affirm CYP and boost their confidence. b) Should NOT be harmful – i.e., derogatory (e.g. “you’re a loser), threatening, frightening, profane, discriminatory, racist, sexual.
2	Adhering to professional role boundaries: a) Act only within the confines of your duties/role. b) Unless with express consent from College Principal Coach at Warrandyte Calisthenics College, do NOT: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i.
